

RECENT ELT EVENTS

- TEACHING, TESTING, TRAINING - IT'S ALL ABOUT LEARNING

The International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language (IATEFL) contributed to the 2011 NAFLE conference (04-06 November 2011) by offering a series of exciting and informative workshops and lectures by international and local trainers. This unique programme was a collaboration between three IATEFL Special Interest Groups: Young Learners & Teenagers, Testing and Assessment, Teacher Training & Education, together with the Department of Foreign Languages of Beijing Normal University.

The TTEd SIG Coordinator Prof Birsen Tutüniş had a workshop session called Learner training for EFL skills in collaboration with Dr Chen Zehang.

The speakers on NAFLE programme were all experienced teachers, teacher trainers and authors. This international collaborative programme allowed delegates to get a taste of the latest developments in the areas of Young Learners and Teenagers, Testing and Assessment and Teacher Training & Education

The speakers on

Burcu Tezcan-Unal, who recently became an IATEFL TTEd Committee member, also gave a session entitled “Moving beyond your teaching career” in NAFLE. She introduced the participants a framework that they use the institution she works for referring to the main components of the teaching profession.