

Africa

This scholarship was set up in 2007 to help teachers or teacher trainers from African countries to attend the IATEFL Annual Conference for the first time and to have the opportunity to be published in IATEFL publications. It is not necessary to be an IATEFL member to apply nor is it necessary to give a presentation.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- GBP1,800 towards accommodation, expenses and travel costs
- a year's IATEFL membership

To qualify you must:

- be a native of and usually resident in an African country
- be a practising teacher or trainer in primary, secondary or tertiary education
- agree to write a 500 word report of your conference experiences by June 2013

To be considered you should submit:

- a statement between 400 and 500 words on how attending the IATEFL conference would benefit you and the ELT community within which you work.

BESIG Facilitators Scholarship

This scholarship is for a teacher to attend the IATEFL Conference for the first time and to give a presentation on the BESIG Day.

This scholarship will be awarded to someone who is also interested in starting up and facilitating local Business English events in his or her home area and contributing to BESIG through articles for Business Issues or web-based communication tools.

The award consists of:

- booking for the conference
- booking for the BESIG pre-conference event
- up to GBP1800 for travel and accommodation expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a member of IATEFL and Business English SIG
- be able to give a presentation on an aspect of teaching Business English for the Business English Programme Day at the main IATEFL Conference
- give a brief summary of your work at the BESIG Open Forum on the BESIG Programme Day
- undertake to promote BESIG in your area as well as to organise and report on business English events
- have good ICT skills and a sound knowledge of Web 2.0 technologies

To be considered for the scholarship you should submit:

- an online speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23rd AUGUST and no later on an aspect of teaching Business English for the BE SIG Day
- a 400-500 word summary outlining your plans for facilitating business English in your area

Cactus to Conference

This scholarship is funded by Cactus Worldwide and is intended to enable a teacher new to ELT to enjoy the experiences of attending an IATEFL annual conference and being an IATEFL member. The scholarship also gives you the opportunity to be published on the Cactus website and in IATEFL publications

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- GBP400 towards accommodation and travel costs
- a year's IATEFL membership

To qualify you must:

- be a newly qualified teacher with between one and three years' experience in the ELT profession
- agree to write an article (approx. 400 words) following the conference on your experience of conference plus two further articles of similar length at 6 and 12 months after conference about how winning has affected your practice.

To be considered, you should submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of August 23rd and no later, if you are submitting one*
- an outline between 400 and 500 words of your best lesson so far and why you think it went well

*Please note: it is not a requirement of this scholarship to give a presentation at the IATEFL conference. However, part of the full conference experience is giving a presentation. So if you're a member of IATEFL, you may wish to submit a speaker proposal at www.iatefl.org/liverpool-2013/liverpool-2013

Cambridge ESOL Best Practice in English for Academic Purposes

This scholarship gives the opportunity for any teacher involved with teaching English for Academic Purposes to attend the IATEFL annual conference Liverpool 2013. This scholarship is funded by the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations.

The award consists of:

- Booking for a pre-conference event of the winner's choice
- Booking for the main conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a maximum of five nights' accommodation
- travel costs including, if necessary, an economy flight to the UK*
- GBP50.00 per day expenses

* This includes the cost of flights and airport transfers. Cambridge ESOL will not cover the cost of stopovers.

To qualify you must:

- teach English for Academic Purposes
- have never attended the main IATEFL annual conference

To be considered for the scholarship you must:

- complete the following task in 400-500 words

Drawing on your own experience, identify what you feel are the most important skills required for reading academic texts, and describe the ways in which you help your students develop them.

Cambridge ESOL Best Practice in Language Assessment

This scholarship, funded by the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations, gives the opportunity for anyone with an interest in Language Assessment to attend the IATEFL annual conference Liverpool 2013.

The award consists of:

- booking for the Testing Evaluation and Assessment Special Interest Group (TEA SIG) pre-conference event
- booking for the main conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a maximum of five nights' accommodation
- travel costs including, if necessary, an economy flight to the UK*
- GBP50.00 per day expenses

* This includes the cost of flights and airport transfers. Cambridge ESOL will not cover the costs of stopovers.

To qualify you must:

- work in the fields of English language teaching or language assessment
- or be a post-graduate student focussing on teaching / assessment issues
- have never attended the main IATEFL annual conference

To be considered for the scholarship you must:

- complete the following 400-500 word task:

Action research is a 'research-based form of professional development to enhance pedagogical practice' which has become popular in the last twenty years (Burns, 2012). Read Cambridge ESOL's Research Notes 48

<http://research.cambridgeesol.org/research-notes/issue-48-may-2012> then write a short essay (400-500 words) describing how you would employ action research in your own context.

Cambridge ESOL Best Practice in State Education

This scholarship gives the opportunity for any teacher involved in state education to attend the IATEFL annual conference in Liverpool 2013.

The scholarship is funded by the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations.

The award consists of:

- booking for a pre-conference event of the winner's choice
- booking for the main conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a maximum of five nights' accommodation
- travel costs including, if necessary, an economy flight to the UK*
- GBP50.00 per day expenses

* This includes the cost of flights and airport transfers. Cambridge ESOL will not cover the costs of stopovers.

To qualify you must:

- be involved, formally or informally, in state education or be interested in moving into this area of work
- have never attended the main IATEFL annual conference

To be considered, you must:

- Complete the following task of between 400 and 500 words:

Describe a classroom activity you have created to help prepare your students for a Cambridge English for Schools exam (YLE, Key for Schools, Preliminary for Schools or First for Schools), explaining how the activity both helps the students prepare for the exam and improves their language skills.

Cambridge ESOL Best Practice in Teacher Training

This scholarship provides an opportunity for a teacher trainer involved with the formal or informal training and development of teachers to attend IATEFL Liverpool 2013.

This scholarship is funded by the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations.

The award consists of:

- booking for a pre-conference event of the winner's choice
- booking for the main conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a maximum of five nights' accommodation
- travel costs including, if necessary, an economy flight to the UK*
- GBP50.00 per day expenses

* This includes the cost of flights and airport transfers. Cambridge ESOL will not cover the cost of stopovers.

To qualify you must:

- be a teacher trainer involved, informally or formally, with the training and development of teachers.
- have never attended the main IATEFL annual conference

To be considered, you must:

- complete the following task:

Cambridge English Teacher is a professional development site for English language teachers. Write 500 words explaining Continuous Professional Development to a new teacher, including some practical suggestions of what they can do at different stages of their career.

Cambridge ESOL Dr Peter Hargreaves Scholarship

This scholarship is in memory of Dr Peter Hargreaves. The scholarship is open to any ELT professional or aspiring ELT professional and gives the opportunity to attend the IATEFL Liverpool 2013 Conference. The scholarship is funded by the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations.

The award consists of:

- booking for a pre-conference event of the winner's choice
- booking for the main conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a maximum of five nights' accommodation
- travel costs including, if necessary, an economy flight to the UK*
- GBP50 per day expenses

**This includes the cost of flights and airport transfers. Cambridge ESOL will not cover the costs of stopovers.*

To qualify you must:

- work in the fields of English language teaching or language assessment
- or be a post-graduate student focusing on teaching/assessment issues
- have never attended the main IATEFL annual conference

To be considered for this scholarship you must:

- complete the following task:

Cambridge English Teacher is a professional development site for English language teachers. Continuous professional development is an important part of a teaching career. Write a short essay of 500 words outlining some of the professional development activities that you have done and how these have helped you with your teaching.

Consultants-E online

This scholarship is for teachers unable to attend our annual conference in person but who participate actively in the online conference moodle by making relevant and thoughtful postings. You do not have to be a member of IATEFL to apply for this scholarship.

This scholarship has been funded by Consultants-E.

The award consists of:

- a fully-funded two-week online course to be selected from the course list at <http://www.theconsultants-e.com> covering Blogs, Wikis, eNetworks or Podcasting.

To qualify you must:

- live and work in a developing country
- have 5-6 hours per week available to study for the duration of the course
- have a reliable Internet connection for the duration of the course
- be able to undertake the course within one year of winning the award
- have not attended the main IATEFL conference but who participated actively in the online conference moodle

To be considered you should:

- Provide a statement of interest, between 200 and 300 words, stating how you will share your course learning experiences with your colleagues in your own country.
- submit a scholarship form, available from <http://www.theconsultants-e.com/courses/scholarships.asp>

Deadlines:

Please submit the above to <http://www.theconsultants-e.com/scholarships/default.aspx> within two weeks of the main IATEFL conference i.e. by 26th April 2013. Applicants contributions to the conference Moodle as well as their statements of interest will be taken in to account.

The award results will be communicated to you by 17th May 2013 and you will be invited to select your 2 week course.

The winner will be announced in IATEFL Voices and featured in the Conference Programme the following year.

IATEFL Gillian Porter Ladousse

A conference scholarship for a teacher trainer and/or trainee.

This conference scholarship was set up by the Trainers and Educators SIG (TTEd SIG) in 1999. The driving force behind the Conference Fund was Gillian Porter Ladousse who was Co-ordinator of the SIG at the time. The fund was set up to enable a teacher trainer and/or a trainee, who would not normally be able to do so, to attend the annual IATEFL main conference.

The fund was named the Gillian Porter Ladousse Scholarship after Gillian's death in 2002.

One or two scholarships are usually awarded each year, one to a trainer and/or one to a trainee. In the case of two scholarships being awarded, priority will be given to a trainer and trainee who work together, but all other applications will be carefully considered on merit.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- GBP1000 towards conference related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a current individual member of IATEFL
- submit a speaker proposal for a talk or workshop about teacher training or education by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST
- be a newcomer with between three and ten years' experience in ELT
- agree to write up your experience for the TTEd SIG newsletter
- agree to write an article for the TTEd SIG newsletter on how attending the conference affected your programme of work in your local context.

To be considered, you must submit:

- a statement of between 400 and 500 words on how attending the conference would benefit you, with specific reference to trainer/trainee programmes carried out and/or planned in your local context.
- a speaker proposal for a talk or workshop about teacher training or education by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST

IATEFL Gill Sturtridge First-Time Speaker

A conference scholarship for a first time presenter.

This scholarship is awarded from the donations given by the family and friends of Gill Sturtridge. The purpose of this scholarship is to encourage members of IATEFL to give their first talk at an IATEFL Annual Conference.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- GBP1000 towards conference related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a current IATEFL individual member who has not previously presented at the IATEFL Annual Conference
- be a newcomer with between three and ten years' experience in ELT.

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on why you are applying for the scholarship.

IATEFL Latin America

The scholarship is for a teacher or teacher trainer in Latin America to attend conference.

This scholarship is set up with funds generated by the IATEFL conference to help a teacher or teacher trainer from a Latin American country to attend the IATEFL Annual Conference in Liverpool 2013. It is not necessary to be a member to apply nor is it necessary to give a presentation.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- pre conference event booking of the winner's choice
- GBP1800 towards accommodation, expenses and travel costs
- a year's IATEFL membership if applicable

To qualify you must:

- be resident and native of a Latin American country
- be a practising teacher or teacher trainer in primary, secondary or tertiary education
- have not previously attended the main IATEFL conference

To be considered you must submit:

- a 500-word report after conference for possible publication
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words explaining how attending the conference would benefit you and the community in which you work.

IATEFL Leadership and Management SIG

This scholarship is for a person in an ELT leadership/management role, such as Director of Studies, Academic Manager, Summer School Organiser or similar, to attend the main IATEFL Conference

This scholarship is funded by the IATEFL Leadership and Management Special Interest Group (LAMSIG) with the aim of assisting managers not otherwise funded to attend conference because learning organisations need learning managers. You do not need to be a member of IATEFL to apply.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- LAMSIG pre-conference event booking
- GBP800 towards accommodation and travel costs
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a year's LAMSIG membership

To qualify you must:

- be a practising ELT manager
- submit by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later, a speaker proposal for a talk or workshop at the conference on ELT leadership / management
- agree to write a brief article of 500 to 1000 words to be considered for publication in the LAMSIG newsletter post-conference on your conference presentation topic
- agree to write a further article of similar length 12 months after conference which may be on the most exciting recent development in management, a book you have read, or how you followed up on your conference experience.

To be considered you must submit:

- an outline of between 400 and 500 words describing what you find most challenging about ELT management.
- by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later, a speaker proposal for a talk or workshop at the conference on ELT leadership / management

IATEFL Learning Technologies SIG Diana Eastment

This scholarship commemorates the founder of MUESLI (Micro Users In English as a Second Language Institutions) which became known as the CALL SIG (Special Interest Group) and now is the LT (Learning Technologies) SIG. It is supported by LTSIG funds and donations from Diana's friends and colleagues.

You do not have to be a member of IATEFL to apply. The award is open to all and the winner will be expected to become actively involved in the LTSIG. Priority will be given to applicants from the IATEFL Wider Membership Scheme countries. Future changes to the terms of the award may be made by agreement between the LTSIG and the Scholarship Working Party.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- LTSIG pre-conference event booking
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a year's LTSIG membership
- GBP500 to help with conference related travel and accommodation

To qualify you must:

- submit a speaker proposal, related to learning technologies, to present at conference, by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship will be invalid.
- agree to write up your presentation for possible publication in the LT SIG newsletter
- be willing to become actively involved in the LT SIG.

To be considered you must submit:

- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on your LT background / experience and proposed involvement in the LT SIG.
- a speaker proposal, related to learning technologies, to present at conference

IATEFL Learning Technologies SIG Travel

A travel fund to assist Learning Technologies SIG members in attending the conference.

All LT SIG members are eligible to apply, although priority will be given to WMS country members. Candidates should be presenting for the LT SIG at the conference and be willing to write up their presentation for the SIG's newsletter.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- a LTSIG pre-conference event booking
- GBP500 to help with conference-related expenses
- one year's IATEFL and LTSIG individual membership

To qualify you must:

- be a member of IATEFL and be a member of the LT SIG
- submit a speaker proposal related to learning technologies by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship application will be invalid.
- agree to write up your presentation after conference for possible publication in the LT SIG newsletter

To be considered you must submit:

- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on how attending the conference will benefit you and your ESL/EFL community.
- a speaker proposal related to learning technologies

IATEFL Ray Tongue

A conference scholarship for teachers from East and South East Asia.

This scholarship was set up in memory of our late Treasurer, with the purpose of helping IATEFL members in the countries he was associated with (see below) to attend the IATEFL Annual Conference and give a presentation or lead a workshop. Initially, donations came from the many generous people who knew our treasurer. These days many IATEFL members and delegates make regular donations to the fund because they support its aims.

The award consists of:

- a booking for a pre-conference event of the winner's choice
- a conference booking
- GBP1000 towards conference-related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a current IATEFL individual member
- be a native of Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Sri Lanka or Thailand
- agree to submit by June 2013 a 250 word article on your impressions of the conference for publication in IATEFL Voices

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Please note that without a submitted speaker proposal the scholarship application will be invalid.
- a 400-500 word explanation on how attending the conference would benefit you with specific reference to relevant work, study or research planned and/or carried out.

IATEFL Teacher Development SIG Articulating Development

This scholarship is for a teacher to attend the IATEFL Conference for the first time and to have the opportunity to be published in the Teacher Development SIG Newsletter.

This scholarship, funded by the IATEFL Teacher Development Special Interest Group, is for a teacher to attend the main IATEFL Conference for the first time and to have the opportunity to be published in the Teacher Development SIG Newsletter. It will be awarded to someone who is interested in exploring their own development and writing about it so that others can share their insights.

The award consists of:

- A conference booking
- GBP500 for conference-related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a member of the TD SIG
- be questioning about your teaching and willing to learn
- be good at articulating your thoughts and arranging them in written form and able to meet deadlines
- agree, if you win the scholarship, to write three short articles after the conference for possible publication in the TD SIG newsletter, recording your development as a teacher in the year following the conference. You are asked to focus on how your experiences at the conference have furthered your development
- have not previously attended an IATEFL annual conference

To be considered you must submit:

- an article of between 400 and 500 words on the developmental high points so far in your career (this article also may be published in the TD SIG Newsletter).

IATEFL W R Lee

Conference scholarship for teachers from Central and Eastern Europe

The WR Lee Scholarship Fund was set up in memory of our late Founder Chair with the purpose of helping IATEFL members in the countries concerned (see below) to attend the IATEFL Annual Conference and give a presentation. Initially, donations came from the many generous people who knew our founder. These days many IATEFL members and delegates make regular donations to the fund because they support its aims. One scholarship is usually awarded each year.

The award consists of:

- a pre-conference booking of the winner's choice
- booking for the conference
- GBP1000 towards accommodation and travel costs

To qualify the applicants must:

- be natives of the following countries; Czech Republic, Slovakia, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland or Hungary
- be a fully paid up individual member of IATEFL

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship application will be invalid.
- a statement of between 400 and 500 words on how attending the conference would benefit you with specific reference to relevant work, study, or research planned and/or carried out.

IELTS Morgan Terry Memorial

This new scholarship, funded by the IELTS partners (British Council, IDP: IELTS Australia, University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations), is in memory of Morgan Terry, a dear colleague who made significant contributions to the work of IELTS until her untimely death in 2011.

The award consists of:

- booking for the TEA SIG's Pre-Conference Event
- booking for the main conference
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a maximum of five nights' accommodation
- travel costs including, if necessary, an economy flight to the UK*
- GBP 50.00 per day expenses

* this includes cost of flights and airport transfers but not the cost of stopovers

To qualify you must

- have prepared learners for taking IELTS
- have never attended the IATEFL annual conference
- agree to write an article six months after the conference about how attendance at the conference has enriched your practice.

To be considered you must submit in 400-500 words :

- educational material you have created (e.g. lesson plan, classroom activity) and used to prepare prospective IELTS candidates for taking the test and detail:
  - the creation process behind the material
  - the reason(s) why the material is innovative
  - how the material may be used by other teachers.

International House Brita Haycraft Better Spoken English

This new scholarship is funded by International House in honour of their co-founder Brita Haycraft who did so much to promote the teaching of better spoken English within the International House family of schools and in the wider ELT community.

The aim of the scholarship is to encourage the working with all aspects of pronunciation teaching, not just single sounds, as an integrated and integral part of general English lessons.

The award consists of:

- Booking for the Pronunciation SIG pre conference event
- Booking for the main IATEFL conference
- GBP1500.00 for conference related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a member of IATEFL and of Pronunciation SIG
- be a teacher who regularly incorporates pronunciation work into your teaching

To be considered you should:

- Submit an account of between 400 and 500 words on the most successful pronunciation teaching experience you have had including a rationale of why this experience was successful. Accounts should feature either methodology (classroom techniques and activities), or small scale research, or an attempt to evaluate the impact of your pronunciation teaching. In all cases the focus should be on your students achieving better spoken English through a focus on pronunciation.
- Submit a speaker proposal.

International House Global Reach

For people resident and native of distant countries, who are practising teachers.

The aim of this scholarship, funded by International House, is to enable teachers living beyond the 'cheap flights' area of the world to attend the IATEFL annual conference in the UK.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- GBP1500 towards long haul travel expenses
- a year's IATEFL membership

To qualify you must:

- be a practising teacher in tertiary, primary or secondary education, state or private sector
- live beyond the 'cheap flights' area of the world
- have not attended an IATEFL annual conference before
- agree, if you win the scholarship, to submit a report by June 2013 for possible publication in International House Journal on your experiences and their usefulness for your local teaching context.

To be considered you must submit:

- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on how you would share your learning experiences at conference with colleagues in your own country.

International House John Haycraft Classroom Exploration

This scholarship has an early deadline in order to enable the winners to set up research projects for the next academic year. The next deadline will be in June 2013 for scholarships for Harrogate.

In 2006 Jane Willis and Corony Edwards won a British Council ELT Innovation award for their book Teachers Exploring Tasks in English Language Teaching and donated their award to finance a scholarship to the IATEFL Exeter Conference in 2008. The interest in and quality of applications for this scholarship indicated that it should be offered annually.

International House kindly stepped in to 'adopt' this scholarship and there will now be two scholarships awarded annually. The scholarship is named in memory of the founder of International House, John Haycraft.

The aim of the scholarship is to encourage teachers to embark on or to continue small-scale classroom exploration projects to shed light on learner/learner, learner/teacher aspects of the classroom language learning experience.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- GBP1500 towards travel expenses
- a year's IATEFL membership
- booking for the Research Special Interest Group (RES SIG) pre-conference event

To be considered, you must meet the following criteria:

- you must submit a research outline with its rationale ( 400-500 words). You can enter a project already underway or planned for the academic year 12/13.
- a progress report or a final report on the work will be presented at IATEFL Liverpool 2013. You must submit a speaker proposal by the deadline of 13th September. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship will be invalid and the award will be given to an alternative applicant.

A panel will select the winner(s) by late July so that they have time to plan their research over the coming academic year.

Selection Criteria

1. The project should be small-scale and classroom based
2. The research topic should be suitable for its social and educational context
3. Its objectives should be clearly defined and achievable
4. The procedures used for data collection and analysis should be clear
5. The work should be original/innovative in some way
6. The process and/or outcomes should be useful to other teachers/trainers

International House Training and Development

This aim of this scholarship, funded by International House, is to enable a teacher trainer/developer working in either private or state sector education to present his/her work to a wider audience by giving a presentation at the IATEFL annual conference. The trainer/developer should also be in a position to disseminate knowledge and skills from the conference back to the local workplace. You do not have to be a member of IATEFL to apply for this scholarship.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- GBP1500 towards travel expenses
- a year's IATEFL membership

To qualify you must:

- be a teacher trainer/developer working in either private or state sector education and be in a position to disseminate knowledge and skills from the conference back to the local workplace

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship application will be invalid.
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on how you will share your conference learning experiences with colleagues in your country.

OISE Young Learners

This scholarship is funded by OISE to enable a practising teacher of young learners to lead a workshop at the IATEFL annual conference for the first time. It is not necessary to be a member of IATEFL to apply.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- GBP580 towards accommodation and travel costs
- a year's membership of IATEFL

To qualify you must:

- be a practising teacher of young learners (18 years or younger)
- be a first time speaker at the main IATEFL conference

To be considered you must submit:

- summary of between 400 and 500 words on how you have incorporated a high level of challenge for your students in your teaching and how you have helped your students go beyond their expectations of themselves.
- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship application will be invalid.

Onestopenglish Creativity in the Classroom

This scholarship is intended to enable a teacher committed to encouraging and facilitating creativity in the classroom to attend the IATEFL Liverpool Conference 2013, to become an IATEFL member and to join the onestopenglish community.

This new scholarship is funded by onestopenglish and is open to teachers of any level of experience, working in any area of English language teaching. Its aim is to reward the implementation of new and inventive ways of engaging students in the classroom by giving a teacher the opportunity to attend the IATEFL conference for the first time and to inspire other teachers through the publication of an article on the onestopenglish site.

It is not necessary to be an IATEFL member to apply, nor is it necessary to give a presentation at the conference.

The award consists of:

- GBP800 towards travel and accommodation costs
- a main conference booking
- a PCE booking of your choice
- a year's IATEFL membership
- a year's onestopenglish membership (or, for existing members of onestopenglish, a 12 month extension to your subscription)

To qualify you must:

- be an EFL teacher actively working in a classroom situation
- commit to writing an article (or about 1,000 words) on your experience of the conference, to be published on onestopenglish

To be considered you should apply online, including:

- a 400-500 word article telling us about how you encourage and facilitate creativity in the classroom and advising other teachers on how they can do it, too. You can include examples of teaching materials and/or students' work to demonstrate your skills.

Pilgrims Humanising Language Teaching

This scholarship is funded by Pilgrims to enable a practising teacher in any teaching situation to attend the IATEFL main annual conference for the first time, to give a presentation or workshop, and to have the opportunity to be published in www.hltmag.co.uk and in IATEFL Voices.

The award consists of:

- a conference booking
- GBP580 towards accommodation and travel costs
- a year's membership of IATEFL

To qualify you must:

- be a practising teacher who has recently explored a person centred approach or approaches in English language teaching
- be a first time speaker at the main IATEFL Conference
- if you win the scholarship, agree to write a 500-600 word article by September 2013 for possible publication in www.hltmag.co.uk on how you have incorporated a person-centred approach into your teaching.

To be considered, you should submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship application is invalid.
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on how you have incorporated a person-centred approach into your teaching so far.

Pilgrims Teacher Trainer Journal

This scholarship is funded by Pilgrims to enable a practising teacher or teacher trainer to lead a workshop at the IATEFL annual conference and to have the opportunity to be published in the Teacher Trainer Journal and in IATEFL publications. It is not necessary to be a member of IATEFL to apply.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- GBP580 towards accommodation and travel costs
- a year's membership of IATEFL

To qualify you must:

- be a practising teacher or teacher trainer who can deliver a highly effective and inspirational training session
- agree, if you win, to write a 500-600 word article by September 2013 for possible publication in Teacher Trainer Journal, reflecting on your training session

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship will be invalid.
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words on how you have planned your training workshop so far.

Trinity College London Language Examinations

The aim of this scholarship, funded by Trinity College London, is to enable an ELT professional working in the field of examinations development to present their work to a wider audience by giving a presentation suitable for inclusion in the Testing, Evaluation and Assessment Special Interest Group programme at the IATEFL annual conference. You do not need to be a member of IATEFL to apply for this scholarship.

The award consists of:

- booking for the TEA SIG pre-conference event
- conference booking
- a year's IATEFL membership
- GBP1000 towards conference related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be an ELT professional working in the field of examinations development

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal, suitable for inclusion in the Testing, Evaluation and Assessment Special Interest Group Day, by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship will be invalid
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words explaining what in your approach is particularly innovative or relevant to teachers of English in a specific region, or to a wide range of teachers in the 21st Century, and why it will be of interest to an IATEFL audience.

Trinity College London Teacher Trainer

The aim of this scholarship, funded by Trinity College London, is to enable a trainer working in the field of teacher qualifying courses with assessed assignments and/or teaching practice to present his/her work to a wider audience by giving a presentation at the IATEFL annual conference.

You do not need to be a member of IATEFL to apply for this scholarship.

The award consists of:

- conference booking
- a booking for the TTEd SIG pre-conference event
- a year's IATEFL membership
- GBP1000 towards conference related expenses

To qualify you must:

- be a trainer working in the field of teacher qualifying courses with assessed assignments and/or teaching practice.

To be considered, you must submit:

- a speaker proposal by the scholarship deadline of 23RD AUGUST and no later. Without a submitted speaker proposal, the scholarship application will be invalid.
- a summary of between 400 and 500 words explaining what in your approach is particularly innovative or relevant to teachers of English in a specific region, or to a wide range of teachers in the 21st Century.